

The Transduality (R)evolution

A Medical Exam of Humanity and a Cure
By Odd Neess – transduality.com

The Malady

Patient:

Humanity: Nearly 14 billion years in the making, 300,000 years as Homo Sapiens. Each member a miracle in motion with 30 trillion cells working together – like a boss. Inhabiting the only planet known to sustain life.

Symptoms:

- Suicidal: On the brink of MAD nuclear war
- Ecocidal: Destroys its own environment.
- Epidemic loneliness / no one believes in love anymore

Cause:

Dualitis – The assumption that we exist fundamentally separate from each other and from nature.

• War

When separation is deemed to be fundamental, everyone else becomes an existential threat.

• Ecocide

When the separation between inside and outside is deemed to be fundamental, nature is doomed for destruction – an object for our fears and desires.

• Lack of connection

Love is conditioned by duality – the belief that separation is fundamental, even between partners.

The Remedy

Transduality – The observation that separation isn't fundamental. Two pointers to Transduality:

• Breath

Inside is connected to outside with every breath we take.

• Space / Time

Space: Looking inward, this moment doesn't end at our layers of skin, at our mouth, heart, or brain.

Looking outward, this moment doesn't end at the screen in front of you, or at the wall behind it. It doesn't end at the horizon, the border, or even at the end of the Universe. Wherever we can and cannot go, it's the same moment – this one.

Time: We are used to chopping this moment into several separate mini moments. Seconds, minutes, months, millennia. But in reality they are nowhere to be found. Yesterday, today, and tomorrow are all variations on the same moment – this one.

Conclusion:

We exist as this infinite and timeless moment, not merely in it. We are this.

It's easy for an individual to get that Transduality is more in tune with the nature of reality than duality is. Yet we're up against 300,000 years of conditioning and our world remains built upon the assumption of duality – not of Transduality.

Which leads us to The Hard Problem of Spirituality. How do we get to there from here? How do we create a collective matrix of Transduality – a new world built upon the observation that separation isn't fundamental?

The Therapy

Medicine:

The solution to The Hard Problem of Spirituality: A three-pronged cellular treatment inspired by the recent pandemic. Spreading Transduality as a benevolent virus of the mind.

• Single Cells

Any person that ponders Transduality. Use LLMs to expand on your insights.

• Double Cells

Two Single Cells that agree to connect on a platform of Transduality. Could be your significant other, your best friend, or any stranger looking to level up. The most potent version is the Couple Cell.

• Poly Cells

Any Cell with more than two cellmates. More than two, but not more than six. Upon hitting six members – Cells should split. As a safeguard against power-seekers, and to keep the viral R-number ticking.

Together these Cells will organically grow into a new platform of Transduality – a new world that transcends and includes duality.

The Prognosis

Humanity is at a crossroads. Breakthroughs in machine learning and robotics the last ten years means that previously utopian dreams of sustainable abundance for all, exploration of space, eternal life, and even unconditional love—are all within grasp.

At the same time, all the symptoms of dualitis are peaking. The duality OS is crashing under the weight of its inherent contradictions.

Ecocide and hyperpolarization may doom us in the long run, but the most imminent threat is MAD—Mutually Assured Destruction.

Our choice is clear: MAD or MAT – Mutually Assured Destruction or Mutually Assured Transcendence.

We can upgrade to a Transduality OS and use AI and robotics to realize those ancient utopian dreams in our lifetime—or we may end up a cosmic punchline: the species that deleted all life above cockroaches on the only known planet to support it.

Which it will be depends on you and me. Don't look to leaders to save us. Their mandate is to maintain the duality OS. The Transduality (R)evolution will be middle out, not top down.

We got this. We are this.

Have a great day. Don't seize it – unleash it!
